

MIKE PRESS 2013 SINGLE VINEYARD MERLOT

Campbell Mattinson THE WINEFRONT May 7th 2015

I've not often been a fan of Mike Press Merlot. I am of this release.

It's a most delicious drink. Well-structured too. With balance at every turn. It tastes of blackberry, red cherry and mulberry with a subtle slip of creamy oak helping it along. It feels and tastes 'just right'. It's not a big wine, indeed it's only just into medium-weight, but the tannin is both fine and firm and the finish satisfying. This is definitely one to add to the Buy list.

Rated : 91 Points

Tasted : May15

Alcohol : 14.6%

Price : $14

Closure : Screwcap

Drink : 2015 - 2021+